Metanoia

First reading: First Book of Kings 3:5,7-12

Responsorial Psalm: Lord how I love your law!

Second reading: Letter of St Paul to the Romans 8:28-30

Gospel acclamation:

I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father

Gospel: Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus said to the crowds, 'The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field which someone has found; he hides it again, goes off happy, sells everything he owns and buys the field.

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls; when he finds one of great value he goes and sells everything he owns and buys it.

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet cast into the sea that brings in a haul of all kinds. When it is full, the fishermen haul it ashore; then, sitting down, they collect the good ones in a basket and throw away those that are no use. This is how it will be at the end of time: the angels will appear and separate the wicked from the just to throw them into the blazing furnace where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

'Have you understood all this?' They said, 'Yes.' And he said to them, 'Well then, every scribe who becomes a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out from his storeroom things both new and old.'

We are a Catholic community committed to welcoming our brothers and sisters, celebrating the Eucharist, receiving the Sacraments, spreading the Good News, passing on our Catholic faith and Traditions, promoting devotion to Divine Mercy and assisting the poor and less privileged in our community. As the National Shrine of Divine Mercy we encourage fuller participation in the Divine Mercy devotions

National Shrine of Divine Mercy

We are commissioned to spread the Message of Divine Mercy to all. Please join us for Divine Mercy Devotion every Friday at 6.00 pm. All are welcome.

Who was St Dominic?

August 8 - Feast Day of St Dominic

He was a true disciple of Christ in word and deed. He was known for his tireless preaching, generosity, and knowledge.

He lived a solemn life, sleeping on the ground, giving up worldly possessions, and eating simple meals. e. He was focused on what he knew mattered most – teaching the truth about Jesus and the Church. He dedicated himself to spending many hours praying and studying, so he was best prepared to share the word of God and the Catholic faith. He did all of this, because he believed that actions are many times louder than words. He wanted to be an example of God’s love and the love of God.

Saint Dominic was born in 1179 in Spain the son of Felix de Guzman and Jane of Aza. History tells us that during her pregnancy with him she had an amazing dream telling her “her child would be an eminent preacher” to be a light to the world for Christ. His parents made sure Saint Dominic was well educated in all subjects, especially his faith, understanding that his Catholic faith was not a subject to study, but a way of life.

Just as the dream foreshadowed young Dominic began his preaching about the teachings of Jesus before he was a priest. During this time in Europe there were many struggles and at the heart of most of them was religion. St. Dominic, who was opposed to warfare and bloodshed, chose to challenge the heresies with dialogue on an intellectual level. In doing so he converted many souls and brought more back to the Catholic faith.

His efforts were so inspiring throughout Europe he had a growing following of men and women who wanted to commit to prayer, study, and preaching. St. Dominic was the founder of several religious communities, including one of the largest in the Church the Order of Preachers now known as the Dominicans.

He was notable for his learning and love of poverty. The Order of Preachers (Dominicans), which he founded about the year 1215. He required his friars to work with their minds by preaching and teaching. He died at Bologna on August 6, 1221.

St. Dominic is also known for spreading and popularizing the Rosary.
