Metanoia

First reading: Ezekiel 47:1-2,8-9,12

Responsorial Psalm: The waters of a river give joy to God's city, the holy place where the Most High dwells.

Second reading: 1st letter of St Paul to Corinthians 3:9-11,16-17

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

I have chosen and consecrated this house, says the Lord, for my name to be there forever.

Alleluia!

Gospel: John 2:13-22

Just before the Jewish Passover Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and in the Temple he found people selling cattle and sheep and pigeons, and the money changers sitting at their counters there. Making a whip out of some cord, he drove them all out of the Temple, cattle and sheep as well, scattered the money changers' coins, knocked their tables over and said to the pigeon-sellers, 'Take all this out of here and stop turning my Father's house into a market.' Then his disciples remembered the words of scripture: Zeal for your house will devour me. The Jews intervened and said, 'What sign can you show us to justify what you have done?' Jesus answered, 'Destroy this sanctuary, and in three days I will raise it up.' The Jews replied, 'It has taken forty-six years to build this sanctuary: are you going to raise it up in three days?' But he was speaking of the sanctuary that was his body, and when Jesus rose from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the scripture and the words he had said.

We are a Catholic community committed to welcoming our brothers and sisters, celebrating the Eucharist, receiving the Sacraments, spreading the Good News, passing on our Catholic faith and Traditions, promoting devotion to Divine Mercy and assisting the poor and less privileged in our community. As the National Shrine of Divine Mercy we encourage fuller participation in the Divine Mercy devotions

What is Qumran?

Site of the Dead Sea Scrolls: The name Qumran is most famous for the caves where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered in 1947. The settlement's inhabitants are believed to have hidden their important documents in the caves before fleeing a Roman invasion around 68 CE.

Come to the sessions starting Monday 17th November to find out more.
